1. The Simple Castle

This is the most basic type of cardboard castle, and it's perfect for cats who just want a place to hide and sleep. To make a simple castle, simply cut out a few holes in a cardboard box and tape the box together. You can also add a few decorations, such as a cardboard tower or a drawbridge.

2. The Multi-Level Castle

This castle is a bit more complex than the simple castle, but it's worth the extra effort if you have a cat who loves to climb. To make a multi-level castle, simply stack several cardboard boxes on top of each other and tape them together. You can then cut out holes in the boxes to create windows and doors.

3. The Tower Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love to perch high up. To make a tower castle, simply roll up a piece of cardboard into a tube and tape it together. You can then cut out a hole in the top of the tube for your cat to climb in.

4. The Drawbridge Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love to play. To make a drawbridge castle, simply cut out a hole in the side of a cardboard box and tape a piece of cardboard over the hole. You can then attach a string to the cardboard and pull the string to raise and lower the drawbridge.

5. The Maze Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love to explore. To make a maze castle, simply cut out a maze in a piece of cardboard. You can then tape the cardboard to the inside of a cardboard box.

6. The Scratching Post Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love to scratch. To make a scratching post castle, simply cover a cardboard box with carpet. You can then cut out a few holes in the box for your cat to climb in.

7. The Playhouse Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love to play. To make a playhouse castle, simply cut out a few holes in a cardboard box and decorate the box with fabric. You can then add some toys or treats to the box to make it more enticing for your cat.

8. The Catnip Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love catnip. To make a catnip castle, simply sprinkle some catnip inside a cardboard box. You can then cut out a few holes in the box for your cat to climb in.

9. The Christmas Castle

This castle is perfect for cats who love Christmas. To make a Christmas castle, simply decorate a cardboard box with Christmas decorations. You can then cut out a few holes in the box for your cat to climb in.
