Instructions

1.

Cut out the fabric pieces according to the pattern. Be sure to leave a 1/4-inch seam allowance around all edges. 2.

too tightly. 4.

Sew up the opening in the plush pup. 5.

Add details to your plush pup, such as eyes, a nose, and a mouth. You can use fabric paint, embroidery thread, or even buttons to create your own unique design.

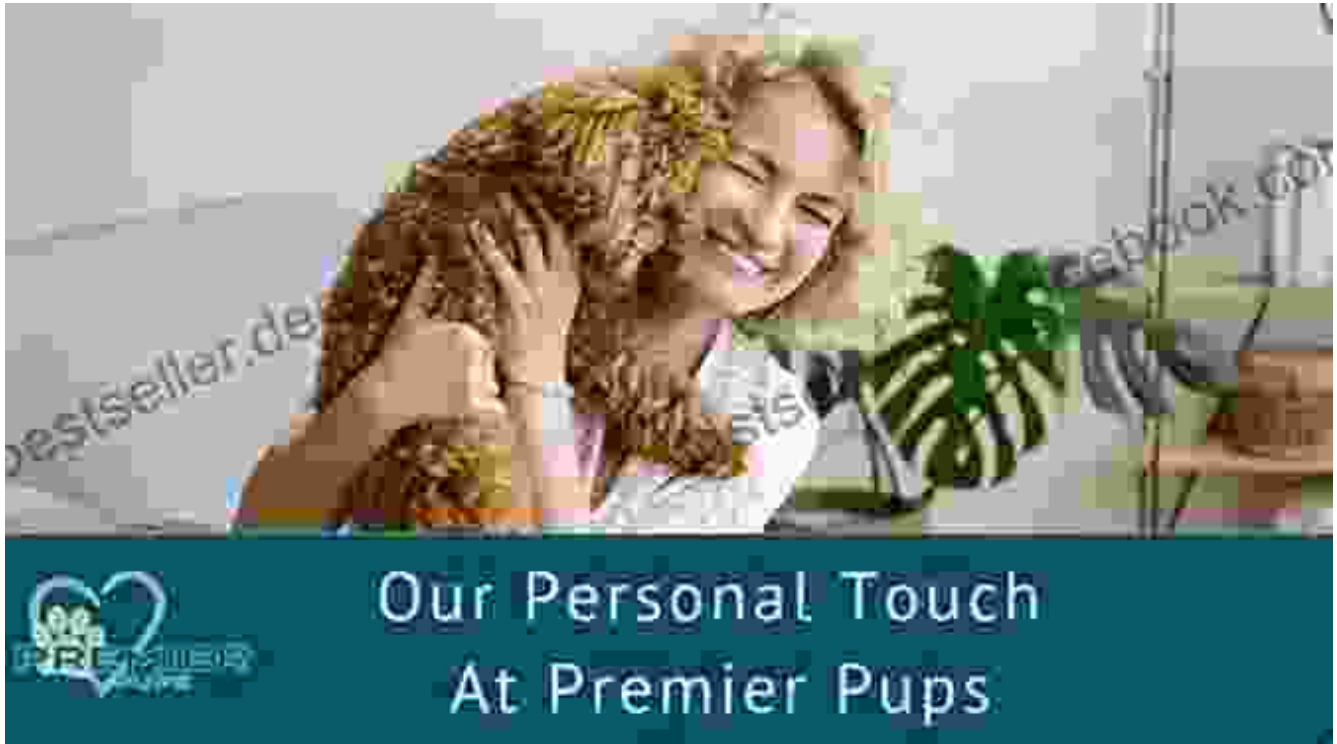

Tips

Use different fabrics to create a variety of looks. For example, you could use a soft, cuddly fabric for the body of the plush pup and a more durable fabric for the paws and ears. *

Add personal touches to your plush pups to make them truly unique. For example, you could embroider your child's name on the plush pup's collar or add a special charm to its ear. *

Make multiple plush pups so that your child can have a whole family of furry friends to play with.
