Farmer George's day starts early. He is usually up before the sun, and he is always the first one in the barn. He starts by feeding the animals. He gives the cows hay and grain, and he gives the pigs and chickens their breakfast. Once the animals are fed, Farmer George milks the cows. He gets a big bucket and milks each cow by hand. He then pours the milk into a large container and takes it to the milk house.

After milking the cows, Farmer George collects the eggs from the chicken coop. He gathers the eggs and puts them in a basket. He then takes the basket to the kitchen and washes the eggs. Once the eggs are washed, Farmer George puts them in the refrigerator.

Once the animals are fed and the eggs are collected, Farmer George goes out to the fields. He plows the fields with his tractor and then he plants the crops. He plants corn, soybeans, and wheat. Farmer George works hard all day long, but he loves his work. He is proud of his farm and he is happy to provide food for his family and community.

Farmer George is a role model for all of us. He is a hard-working man who is dedicated to his work. He is also a kind and generous person who is always willing to help others. We should all strive to be more like Farmer George.
