Moose is the captain of the men's hockey team. He's strong, skilled, and has a heart of gold. But he's also loyal to his team, and he knows that dating Emily would be a betrayal of everything he believes in.

Despite their rivalry, Emily and Moose can't deny their chemistry. They start to fall for each other, but they know that their relationship is forbidden. They have to keep their love a secret, or they could risk everything they've worked for.

But as the season progresses, Emily and Moose find it harder and harder to stay apart. They start to sneak around, and they even share a passionate kiss on the ice during a game. But their secret can't stay hidden forever.

When their relationship is finally exposed, Emily and Moose are forced to face the consequences. They're both suspended from their teams, and they're both facing pressure from their families and friends to break up.

But Emily and Moose are determined to fight for their love. They know that it won't be easy, but they're willing to do whatever it takes to be together.

Gametime Moo is a heartwarming tale of love, passion, and the power of teamwork. It's a reminder that even the toughest challenges can be overcome when you have someone to fight for.
