

Just Bunny and the Great Fire Rescue: A Tale of Bravery and Friendship

Just Bunny and the Great Fire Rescue is a children's book written by Martha Freeman and illustrated by Amy Wummer. The book tells the story of Just Bunny, a brave and resourceful bunny who saves his friends from a fire.

One day, Just Bunny is playing in the forest when he sees smoke coming from a nearby house. He knows that his friends, Sammy Squirrel, Molly Mouse, and Teddy Bear, are inside the house, so he rushes to their aid.

Just Bunny finds his friends trapped in the burning house. He tries to open the door, but it is locked. He then uses a nearby stick to break a window and climb inside.
