The guitar was designed by master luthier King Challenge, who is known for his innovative designs and high-quality craftsmanship. The Twin Soul 16 is made from a solid piece of mahogany and features a unique body shape that is designed to provide maximum resonance and sustain.

The guitar has 16 strings, which are arranged in two rows of eight. The strings are tuned to a variety of different tunings, which gives the guitar a wide range of tonal possibilities. The strings are also spaced closely together, which makes it easy to play complex chords and melodies.

The Twin Soul 16 is played with a slide, which is a metal or glass bar that is placed on the strings and used to create a variety of different sounds. The slide can be used to create a wide range of tones, from sweet and mellow to sharp and twangy.

The King Challenge Twin Soul 16 is a versatile guitar that can be used for a wide range of musical genres, including blues, country, rock, and jazz. The guitar's unique sound and playability make it a favorite among professional musicians and hobbyists alike.
