Mission Statement

LBPK's mission is to:

- Instill patriotism and love of country in young Americans
- Teach children about the sacrifices made by our Founding Fathers

- Promote understanding of the importance of preserving our nation's heritage

Educational Programs and Activities

LBPK offers a variety of educational programs and activities for children of all ages, including:

- School programs: LBPK provides free educational materials and programs to schools across the country. These materials include lesson plans, activity sheets, and videos that teach children about the American Revolution and the importance of patriotism.
- Summer camps: LBPK hosts summer camps for children ages 9-12. These camps provide a fun and interactive way for children to learn about American history and culture.
- Youth leadership programs: LBPK offers youth leadership programs for high school students. These programs provide young people with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills and learn about the importance of civic engagement.

Impact

LBPK has had a significant impact on the lives of young Americans. The organization's educational programs and activities have helped children to understand the sacrifices made by our Founding Fathers and the importance of preserving our nation's heritage. LBPK has also helped to inspire a new generation of young patriots who are committed to making a difference in their communities and in the world.

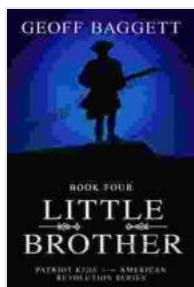

How to Get Involved

There are many ways to get involved with LBPK, including:

- Become a member: LBPK offers a variety of membership levels for individuals, families, and organizations.
- Donate: LBPK is a non-profit organization and relies on donations to support its educational programs and activities.
- Volunteer: LBPK is always looking for volunteers to help with its programs and activities.

Little Brother Patriot Kids of the American Revolution is a valuable resource for parents and educators who want to instill patriotism and love of country in young Americans. The organization's educational programs and activities are fun, engaging, and effective. LBPK is making a difference in the lives of young Americans and helping to ensure that the legacy of our Founding Fathers will continue for generations to come.
