The Seattle Sockeyes are back in action in this thrilling secret baby novel, The Scoring. Filled with passion, drama, and a heartwarming twist, this novel will captivate readers from start to finish.

Synopsis

When star hockey player Jake "The Puck" Puckett discovers he has a secret baby, his world is turned upside down. The mother of his child is none other than his brother's ex-girlfriend, Emily. Emily has kept the baby a secret for two years, but now that Jake knows the truth, he's determined to be a part of his son's life.

Emily is hesitant to let Jake into their lives, but she can't deny the undeniable chemistry between them. As they spend more time together, they realize that their love for their son is stronger than anything else. But their happiness is threatened when Emily's ex-boyfriend, a dangerous and possessive man, returns to the picture.

Jake and Emily must fight for their love and their family. They must also find a way to forgive each other for the past and move on to a brighter future.
