Day 1

Morning: Start your day by visiting the Vasa Museum. This museum is home to the Vasa, a 17th-century warship that sank on its maiden voyage. The ship has been preserved in excellent condition, and you can explore it from top to bottom. After visiting the Vasa Museum, take a walk through the Old Town (Gamla Stan). This charming neighborhood is full of narrow cobblestone streets, colorful buildings, and charming shops.

Afternoon: In the afternoon, visit the Royal Palace. This is the official residence of the Swedish royal family. You can take a tour of the palace and see the state apartments, the royal chapel, and the treasury. After visiting the Royal Palace, take a ferry to Djurgården. This island is home to a number of museums, including the ABBA Museum, the Skansen Open-Air Museum, and the Nordic Museum. You can also visit the Gröna Lund amusement park.

Evening: In the evening, have dinner at one of Stockholm's many restaurants. There are a variety of restaurants to choose from, so you're sure to find something to your taste. After dinner, take a walk along the waterfront and enjoy the views of the city.

Day 2

Morning: Start your day by visiting the Stockholm City Hall. This is the seat of the Stockholm City Council and the venue for the Nobel Prize banquet. You can take a tour of the City Hall and see the Golden Hall, the Blue Hall, and the Council Chamber. After visiting the Stockholm City Hall, take a boat tour of the Stockholm archipelago. This is a great way to see the beautiful islands and scenery that surround Stockholm.

Afternoon: In the afternoon, visit the Fotografiska Museum. This museum is home to a large collection of photography from around the world. After visiting the Fotografiska Museum, take a walk through the Södermalm district. This trendy neighborhood is full of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants. You can also visit the Katarina Church, which offers stunning views of the city.

Evening: In the evening, have dinner at one of Stockholm's many Michelin-starred restaurants. There are a number of restaurants to choose from, so you're sure to find something to your taste. After dinner, take a walk along the waterfront and enjoy the views of the city.

Day 3

Morning: Start your day by visiting the Skansen Open-Air Museum. This museum is a living history museum that recreates life in Sweden in the 19th century. You can visit traditional houses, see animals, and learn about Swedish history and culture. After visiting the Skansen Open-Air Museum, take a walk through the Djurgården Royal Park. This park is home to a number of beautiful gardens, sculptures, and fountains.

Afternoon: In the afternoon, visit the ABBA Museum. This museum is dedicated to the Swedish pop group ABBA. You can see their costumes, instruments, and stage props. After visiting the ABBA Museum, take a ferry back to the mainland. You can then do some shopping in the city center or visit one of Stockholm's many other museums.
